

For your parents

Dear Parents,

You've probably already heard about the exciting opportunity your Joey Scout has coming up on March 17 and 18. Kangaree is a State-wide weekend camp for Joey Scouts to take their first steps of independence.

They'll wake up all excited on Saturday morning and board a bus heading to Lardner Park, Warragul. They'll get off the coach and see the faces of 700 new friends getting off their own buses too! They'll unpack and set up where they'll ultimately crash for the night, after they've used up all their energy of course. Speaking of which, then begins the six amazing activities, which your Joey will tell you all about when they arrive home on Sunday night. They'll be exhausted but excited to share their adventure with you.

Kangaree costs $140 per Joey.

We respect that this is a lot of money.

But, thanks to our incredible volunteers, Kangaree is good value for money.

Transport, food, accommodation, welfare, activities, night entertainment, some merchandise, administration and more = $140.

The personal growth from a Really Big Adventure away from home for 24 hours = Priceless.

All you need to do now is apply for your Joey to attend at kangaree.com.au before March 4 so that the organisers have plenty of time to 'be prepared!'

Every Joey Scout has one opportunity in a lifetime to attend Kangaree, make sure your Joey doesn't miss out!
